Civil Action 2:17-CV-18

CMHC of 2020 et al
Defendants

Plaintiff's Response to Motions to Intervene
DE's 141, 156 + 164

To the Honorable Judge of Said Court,

Now Comes, Ms

Bobbie, AKA the Plaintiff and gives the Court
notice of her acceptance of the Interested Parties Shawn Kelly Vinson, Isabelle Miller and James Scott.

Comment to the Court

Your Honor, the Plaintiff is very close mouth about her legal work. People in prison have the habit of discussing legal law like a abstract picture, where everyone's interpretation is right.

Unless you can organize your thoughts on paper to form a legal argument, please leave me alone.

Even though the Plaintiff is a writ writer, Birds of a feather flock together. The inmate Selene Winslow heard me discussing this case w/ Donald Watton (another Writ Writer) about a Summary Judgement the State will file with their answers.

Ms Selene was not invited in on this conversation.

Get your Honor, here the intervenor's are the old saying, "Home is the place you go to and they got to let you in".

You got to let them in, the Plaintiff has no objections.

The Plaintiff is flabbergasted over the injuries these people are suffering from no medical care for Gender Dysphoria.

The Plaintiff did a guest investigation on Isabelle Miller. She put a bag of ice between her legs, denied everything then started in on it. She was far enough along where everything was ready to hang but the guard rushed her.

live never mentioned anything to her about this Civil Action.

In closing, this is your decision alone. The Plaintiff voices no objections, perhaps the Court can provide relief.

You would certainly be within your right under the Gibson/Collins 5th Circuit ruling. Significant Relief comes in two forms, non-invasive treatments or Sex Reassignment Surgery.

The Plaintiff closes respectfully.

So Prays the Plaintiff

Ms Bobbie

Certification of Service.

This was not sent to the defendants due to its just a general acceptance of the Interveners.
